

Los autobuses shuttle de DART proporcionarán servicios a las estaciones afectadas. Los viajeros subirán y bajarán en las paradas de autobús rojas de “Rail Disruption,” que están localizadas cerca a cada estación.

Se operarán cinco rutas separadas, incluyendo el servicio express entre la Pearl/Arts District y la Union Station (vea el mapa).

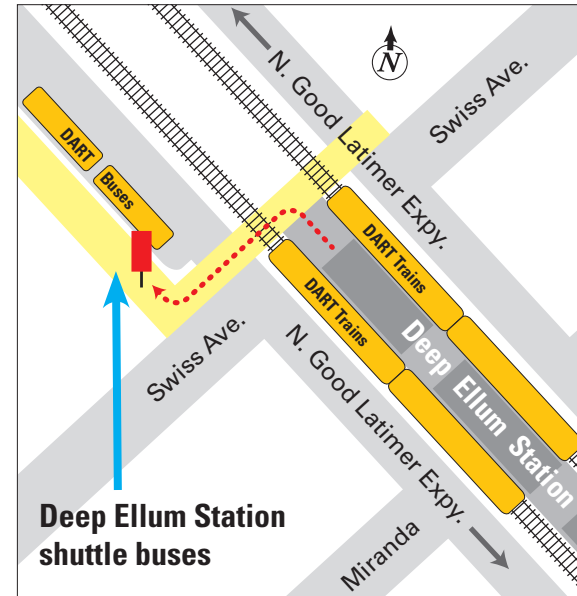

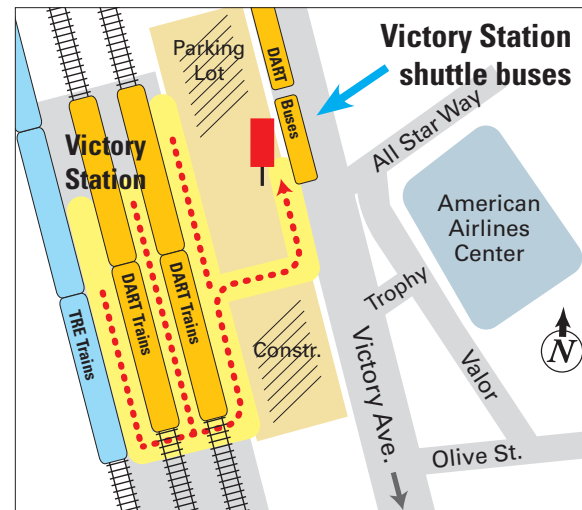

Se recomienda que los pasajeros que viajan en estos fines de semana concedan bastante tiempo extra, especialmente si su viaje incluye transferencias de tren a autobús. Los retrasos pueden también afectar a los aficionados que asisten a los eventos en American Airlines Center durante el fin de semana, así como los que participan en el Capital One Bank Dallas YMCA Turkey Trot durante el Día de acción de gracias.

El servicio normal de los fines de semana se reanudará a tiempo para la Children’s Medical Center Holiday Parade anual.

Actualizaciones al proyecto y servicio estarán disponibles en DART.org.
